1. The KVP has been placed on alert status for the Berlin conference. Interior Minister Willi Stoph ordered all Volkspolizei personnel in the Berlin area to remain in the area after 17 January.
 2. The KVP alert extends from 20 January to 30 March according to border policemen in the Treptow area.¹
 3. All border police furloughs have been cancelled for three months, beginning 17 January.
1. Comment. The alert order apparently pertains only to the Berlin area and reflects the anxiety of East German authorities over possible pro-West demonstrations.
